

SUNDAY 7 JUNE 2009

TIME	LOCATION	EVENT
11.15 20 mins	WAR GALLERY Floor 2	THE CHRISTMAS TRUCE: 1914 A celebration of peace. The remarkable events of Christmas Day in the trenches when German and Allied soldiers called a temporary peace on the Western Front.
12:00 15 mins	TILTYARD Outside (weather permitting)	FALCONRY The Royal Armouries' resident falconer demonstrates the ancient methods of hunting with birds of prey. £1 Adults/50p Children & Concessions NB: gates will close when the display begins
12:45 20 mins	OBSERVATION POST Floor 3	WEAPONS AT WAR A captivating look at firearms throughout history, especially those used by soldiers on D-Day. Stay around after the show for an exclusive chance to handle replica weapons from the collection.
13:15 15 mins	WAR GALLERY Floor 2	THE CHARGE OF THE GREYS: 1815 One man's words rise from the ranks as a veteran tells his terrible story from a bloody conflict that would decide the fate of Europe of a century. A desperate and heroic moment in one of the greatest battles the world had ever seen...
14:00 25 mins	TILTYARD Outside (weather permitting)	THE HORSE AND THE RIDER Using sword, lance and firearm, today's demonstration is in memory of the men and cavalry who have sacrificed themselves in wars across the ages £2 Adults/£1 Children & Concessions NB: gates will close when display begins
15:00 20 mins	OBSERVATION POST Floor 3	WEAPONS AT WAR A captivating look at firearms throughout history, especially those used by soldiers on D-Day. Stay around after the show for an exclusive chance to handle replica weapons from the collection.
15:45 15 mins	ORIENTAL GALLERY Floor 4	ANNIE OAKLEY The life of the famous western sharpshooter: in her own words.