

Tudor Weekend.

Sunday 25th January 2009

Thrilling Performances in THE TOURNAMENT GALLERY!

TIME	LOCATION	EVENT
11:30 20 mins	 FOOT COMBAT ARENA Floor 2	A PRIVY LIFE: 1527 A member of Henry VIII's staff tells of his association with the great king. Sir Henry Norreys's account comes from a very unique and intimate perspective.
12:00 14:45 20 mins	 RED AND WHITE TENT Floor 2	TOURNAMENT GALLERY TOURS Be part of an exclusive museum experience and hear the amazing stories behind some of our most extraordinary objects.
12:45 30 mins	 FOOT COMBAT ARENA Floor 2	IRON MEN A staggering showcase of men in metal. Observe the enormous complexities of Tudor armour and then witness it's humble origins as our Interpreters clash ferociously with sword and shield.
13:30 14:30 16:00 20 mins	 FOOT COMBAT ARENA Floor 2	SQUEAKE'S NOYSE Hear popular music and spellbinding songs from 500 years ago. Stay around after the performance for delicious Tudor food and drink.
15:15 20 mins	 FOOT COMBAT ARENA Floor 2	GARETH'S TALK

Interactive Events in THE WAR GALLERY!

TIME	LOCATION	EVENT
13:15 14:30 16:00 20 mins	 OBSERVATION POST Floor 3	TABLE TOP JOUSTING Shining armour and thundering horses on a miniature scale. Anyone can enter this tiny tournament, but only some will leave with honour. Pint-sized fun for all the family!

Gripping Drama in THE ORIENTAL GALLERY!

TIME	LOCATION	EVENT
14:00 20 mins	 THE DOJO Floor 4	ELIZABETHAN SWORD MASTER Using Shakespeare's Romeo &amp; Juliet , Interpreters highlight sword & buckler and rapier & dagger techniques from 16 th -century manuals.
15:45 20 mins	 THE DOJO Floor 4	WHERE THERE'S A WILL, THERE'S A PLAY! Wigs, weapons and wit. An Elizabethan actor tells of his life in Shakespeare's England.